
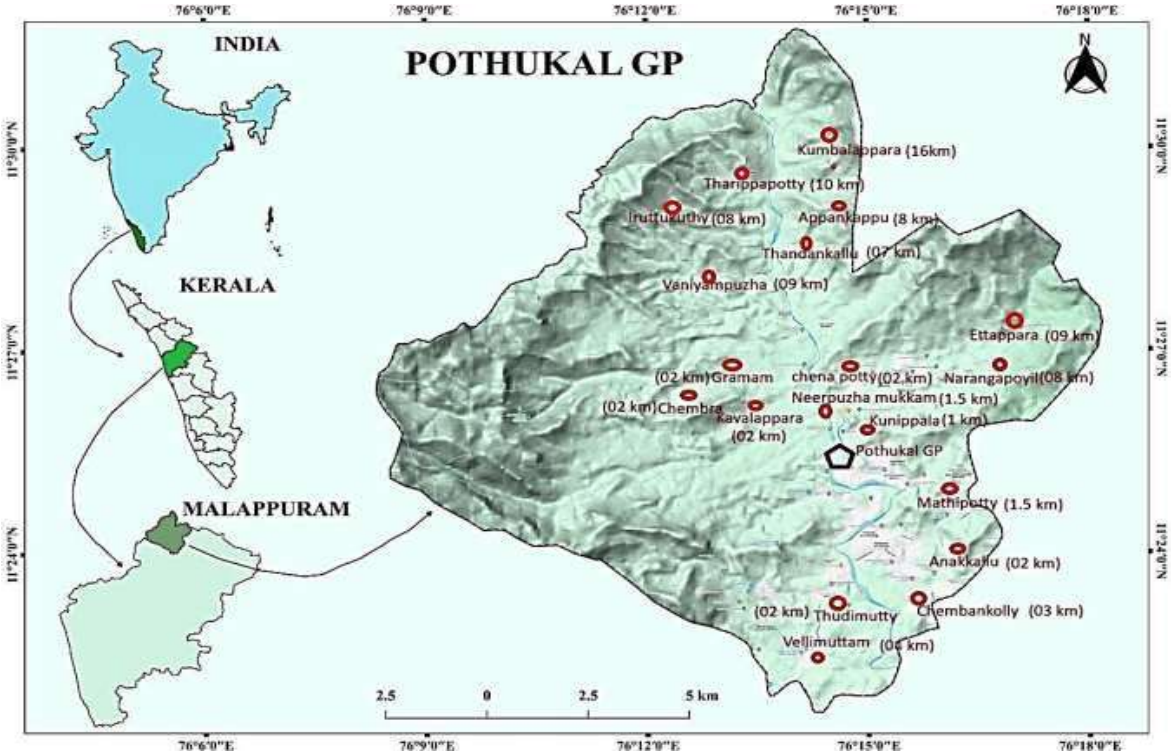
Pothukallu Grama Panchayath

Project Area - Pothukallu Grama Panchayath

Pothukallu Grama Panchayath in Nilambur Block, Malappuram, is home to major tribal communities such as the Paniyan, Muthuvan, Aranadan, and Kattunaikkan. Their livelihoods, largely dependent on forest resources, MGNREGS, and daily wages, were severely disrupted by the 2018–19 floods and landslides. The decline in forest produce, limited land ownership, and lack of modern agricultural knowledge have deepened their economic struggles. Challenges such as illiteracy, rising school dropouts, poor health and nutrition, and inadequate infrastructure hinder sustainable development. Strengthening community participation and providing continuous training and livelihood support are essential to help the tribes rebuild and secure a stable future.



Tribal Resilience Initiative for Building Environmentally Sustainable Livelihoods (TRIBES)

TRIBES is a comprehensive tribal development project with financial support of NABARD. The main objective of the project is comprehensive development of tribal communities through sustainable livelihood systems for identified tribal families. 500 tribal families in four Grama Panchayats of Pothukallu Grama Panchayath of Malappuram District will be the beneficiaries of this project. This five-year project aims to promote sustainable livelihoods and enhance income security among tribal communities through family-centric orchard development. Focusing on small landholdings (50 cents to 1 acre), it encourages agro-biodiversity and ensures active participation of women in agriculture. The project proposes an integrated wadi-cum-livelihood model, combining agriculture and livestock activities within a budget of ₹81,000 per family. Livelihood options include goat rearing, duck farming, buffalo care, and honey cultivation, while agricultural components cover pepper, nutmeg, arecanut, and diverse intercrops.
